

Marching out order: Jacket, pouch and belt, gloves, haversack and water bottle, medal ribbons, great coat if ordered.

Drill order: Jacket, pouch and belt.

Review order: Jacket, pouch and belt, white gloves, haversack and water bottle, medals, greatcoat if ordered.

Church Parade order: Same as Review order, haversack will not be carried.

General Mourning: When ordered will conform to the regulations laid down at the time for His Majesty's Forces.

The cane on occasions of a Review, Inspection or Drill will be carried by the Commanding Officer only; in route marching order by all Officers and Sergeants, and by all ranks when proceeding to or from duty. it will not be carried at Church Parades.

The Brigade Uniform shall only be worn on Brigade duty duly ordered or authorized by the District Headquarters, or on such other occasions as may be permitted with the special sanction of the Officer in charge of the District, which sanction must have been previously obtained in writing.

Members of Nursing Divisions may wear the uniform of the Brigade Overseas when engaged in unpaid District or private nursing with the approval of the Officer in charge of the District.

Uniform, equipment, and ambulance material subscribed for by the members or collected from other sources by them are the property of the Division as a whole. They should be vested in a Committee of the Division for the time being.

SALUTING

Men in uniform will salute all Officers in uniform. If addressed by an Officer or addressing one, they will salute and stand at attention, saluting a second time before retiring. Members when without their caps, will not salute with the hand ; if standing still, they will come to attention ; if walking they will turn the head slightly towards an Officer when passing him.

Members of Nursing Divisions will bow when and after being addressed by an Officer or when passing an Officer.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Members wishing to leave their Districts temporarily can, as a general rule, if they are proceeding to England or other parts of the British Empire, be temporarily attached to a Division, home or overseas as the case may be, and thus be enabled to maintain their Brigade efficiency.

Members leaving their Districts temporarily but not wishing to be attached to a Division as above should apply to the Officer in charge of the District who shall notify the Chief Commissioner through the usual channels, for leave of absence. The period during which they are on leave cannot be reckoned towards the special awards.

GRIEVANCES

Any member having a grievance or desiring to make any representation may claim to have same submitted through the proper channel of communication. If a member is not satisfied with the decision or opinion he or she may claim to have the grievance or representation submitted to the Chief Commissioner.
